Love my kids and thankful for my close relationship with them. Money cannot buy that. Thankful for close family ties and friends.	Grateful for Thieves essential oil that is safe and natural.	Thankful for a God that cares for us all.	I am fortunate to be employed, have a good home and have nutrition.	Loving pet	My journey was rocky but I found peace and friendship along the way.	Safe friendly community.	Being able to join my courageous friend in the annual Parkinson's Walk.	I am grateful to be here, enjoying life and loving what I do everyday in my practice.
I'm grateful for my family who makes me happy every day, especially my 2 nieces who are the prettiest and wisest girls I've ever met. My friends, who make me laugh so hard and stick by my side even when it's hard for them to put up with me because I'm a little crazy	Grateful for my health that I may live life to the fullest. I had breast cancer surgery last October 11-no Lymph nodes involved - so I am very grateful!!!	The simple moments of deep peace and overwhelming happiness I get from being in my favourite places. It's where I'm truly in tune with the universe, I realize my truth and I'm closest to those that mean so much to me, including those who have passed on.	Very fortunate and thankful to be able to attend nursing and have a roof over my head and to be healthy.	My cats they make me laugh and brighten my day. It is nice knowing I saved their lives.	My heartaches as they force me to take action which allows me to grow and become a better person.	I live in a free country, with health care. Live in a safe environment. I can breathe clean air, have clean clothes, drink fresh water, eat fresh food, drive a car, shop. I have a home, transportation, food, a job....the list could go on forever. I'm lucky	Grateful and humbled to help and support family and friends in this life and also moving on to the next.	Every breath I breathe.
I have beautiful, healthy, happy, successful children and grandchildren. My children know their parents, grandparents, great grandparents, great grand parents and each other.	Health which is greater then all wealth	My faith in Jesus	Opportunity to create my own journey, creating happiness in others lives as well as my own. Those things make my heart feel good.	My two dogs and two cats	I am grateful that I can be grateful no matter what is happening! So many blessings even in the midst of turmoil	Wonderful community I live in	Harvest weather, a beautiful opportunity to work and eat together in the field with family.	For this journey that I am on and all the wonderful people I have met on the way!!!
My healthy gentle-souled and kind-hearted son. A husband who can and loves to put a smile on anyone's face.	Good health!!	Ability to dream. Philosophy.	Love; Kindness; FUN; Smiles.	My horses & cat	I'm grateful for having the strength I do to face many challenges without fear.	Freedom	The ability to go back to school and learn new thing and better my career.	Being alive

My caring loving daughter full of life spirit and a huge heart. My parents who love care and guide me and most of all listen to us no matter what. My 6 nephews who are like brothers to my daughter, watch over her and play and listen and willing to help.	Very grateful for the love and good health of my family every day! It's a gift!!	Seth	I feel so lucky to have the money and resources to be able to live in a safe and enriching community in our own home and to afford to feed my family healthy food.	My animals	Grateful to have courage and believe in myself even when others may not...	Freedom, peace and security of our country Canada. The Syrian refugee crisis going on right now. This has made me think a lot lately of all those refugees and what they and their children are going through. Something we as Canadians in our lifetime have never come close to having to experience. We have freedom, we live in peace within our country and we feel safe and secure! So grateful!!!	Being able to experience the things I do such as trips, post secondary school and sports	Expressing gratitude to others is giving of self through words or deeds to others, which brings in return greater benefits back to the giver (a loving giving heart is rewarded with appreciation and good endorphins for blessing others).
I am grateful for such a large family and that they're all healthy. I have 7 children, 20 grandchildren, 32 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren!	I am grateful for family and that all are healthy and doing well.	Grateful for love in the world	Grateful it`s Sunday, I`m lucky to enjoy the work I go to on Monday!		Grateful to take a leap of faith instead of waiting for "one day"....	Life's grand adventure. The unknown path of living.	Knowledge	Gratitude=The ULTIMATE state of receivership! (A favorite quote from Dr. Joe Dispenza says it all for me.)
My kids, they teach me things and make me smile more on a daily basis. My husband whose wisdom astounds me. Our family who is tight knit.	I am grateful for my mind and my health	I am grateful for the Universe, my life and everyone and everything.	Abundance is not in things – it is in how you "live" your days, connecting with yourself &amp; others...		Ability to break past fear &amp; limiting beliefs and take action on my dreams.	Freedom of speech and rights in the democracy I live in, freedom to choose my life endeavors.	Prosperity	I am grateful everyday for a birth mother who shared the greatest gift
I'm very grateful to have both my parents still, love them so much!	I'm healthy, happy	I am grateful ever night for God's blessings in my life	Our new beginning in a new community.		Putting myself "out there"....	Freedom and peace for all	Able to travel lots	Breath of life

Thankful for family including friends who are like family. My grandparents, my friends who support me. The people that have stuck by my side and have given me so many great opportunities in life.	We give thanks for health – cannot put a price on that gift. The ability to look after our health and take steps to make it better through choices.	I am also truly grateful that the Universe brings to me exactly what I need at the perfect time!!!! More then likely it brings it to me more often then that but it doesn't give up until I finally hear it!!!!	I can walk my grand daughter to school, watch her dance, and listen to her stories. I can take my grandson to the park, I can watch him climb, and squeal as he goes down the slide. I can hear him, and see him. Hug my mom and dad, visit relatives and friends.		The desire to choose to be better and not bitter when life challenges me.	A Safe Country to live in.	The opportunity to create	I am grateful my grandson was born today and he was due two weeks ago. Momma (my daughter) and baby are doing just fine thank you thank you thank you
My daughters and their health and waking up each morning. For the friendships I have made and still have. The bond our families have and will continue to have in the wonderful journey we call life.	I am grateful for my good health and never having an injury that has slowed me down	The ability to worship as I please, a God who protects us and answers prayers	Gratitude is the state of mind created by a loving caring heart which appreciates, seeks and finds good in life, even during difficult circumstances.		Forgiveness	The freedom to go places, learn, grow, meet new people, do new things, LIVE.	I'm grateful for my dream nursing job working on a pediatric unit, my colleagues and patients teach me something every day.	Grandbabies, the joy they bring to our lives and how their births/lives help us to recognize the cycle of life and life journeys we are all on.
I am grateful for my family and for my lifestyle. I feel so blessed to have 3 happy, healthy boys and a loving husband who really understands me and who stands by me thick or thin.		God and his faithfulness and grace to us	Having everything I need, not necessarily want...LUCKY ME!!.....and of course smiles and hugs.					Safe arrival of 6 th grandchild this week!
The life I share with the love of my life, the time we have with our children and grandchildren, for new and old friends		I feel like I am on a great path to discovering the real me!	Home; Florida sunshine - sugar white sand - emerald Gulf waters; fish that is delish!					The first thing we think of when we wake up-the gift of life!
Family, friendships that I make along the way.		Grateful to have "woken up"!	Happiness, jobs that I enjoy.					Another day of life

I am grateful for wonderful friendships that we have, though separated by miles and don't get to visit face to face often, there is love and connection that is there and transcends time and distance.			Quiet evenings, a special companion, sitting in front of a fire, listening to the sounds of the night					Life. It's a beautiful day when you wake up. It doesn't matter about the climate, I'm alive. I am great full for longevity.
My husband, children, the love and strength they give me.			Family, love and kindness are my gratitude words					We are grateful for Life.
Wonderful and close knit relationships I have maintained over the years with new friends and family.			Being able to stay home and raise my baby
I am grateful for my family, I can't imagine my life without them			I am also grateful for people who fill my cup, not empty it!
My wife.			Art
To have the experience of being in a loving relationship.			I am grateful for my wonderful life!
Support from friends and family			My gratitude word is "Thank You!"
I am grateful for wonderful family & friends			My nice house and that we all get along
Family & friends who are strong loving kind			A warm house and food to come home to
I am grateful for my husband, he is always learning and doing new things.			I am grateful for the beautiful prairie sunsets and sunrises.
Ohana			Trade winds
I am truly grateful for life with my family I love so much.
